Director General of OOO Kolsky Kray

INFORMATIONAL LETTER

OOO Kolsky Kray is a young, modern and developing company dealing with harvesting of northern wild-growing and garden berries. Our range of products includes cloudberry, blackberry, cowberry, cranberry, crowberry, black currant, red currant, buckthorn, raspberry and cherry.

OOO Kolsky Kray after change of a generation is a successor of IE Vladimir Rubanovsky, who has been exporting wild-growing berries to the northern European states under the trademark of Nordberry. Valio Oy, Saarioinen Oy, Maustaja Oy, Pernod-Ricard Nordic Oy from Finland, Bama Gruppen AS from Norway, Skogsmat i Uddeholm AB and Blåtand AB from Sweden are among our long standing customers.

Each season hundreds of professional pickers collect berries in the most environmentally safe areas of North-West Russia. Careful and selective approach to the harvesting process enables us to offer to our clients the products meeting requirements of the best restaurants and the largest retail networks.

Today we are inviting offer you to purchase any item from our product range. We are absolutely sure that having tested our product quality and our business approach, you and your customers will become our regular clients!

With best regards,

Director General of OOO Kolsky Kray

K.V. Rubanovsky
